

CSU's Public Lands History Center presents
the Fall 2015 American West Program

100 YEARS OF ROCKY MOUNTAIN NATIONAL PARK

Conversations on Park History & Interpretation

Fall River Road, West side of Rocky Mountain National Park.

Image courtesy of Rocky Mountain
National Park Archives

*Copies of Thomas Andrews' book Coyote Valley: Deep History in the High Rockies (Harvard, 2015) available for purchase.

THOMAS ANDREWS

Associate Professor of History, University of Colorado Boulder

RICH FEDORCHAK

Chief of Interpretation & Education, Rocky Mountain National Park

Moderator:

MARK FIEGE

Professor of History,
Colorado State University

THURSDAY
NOV 5, 2015
4:15-5:30pm
Morgan Library Event Hall
(located on the first floor)

Co-hosted by:
CSU's Department of History

SCHOOL OF GLOBAL ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY
Colorado State University

sustainability.colostate.edu/events/american-west-program